Course Description:	This is an intensive study of legal procedures, animal cruelty and neglect laws specific to California, and investigative techniques as they apply to animal services/control officers and humane officer enforcement. This 80-hour course covers required training pursuant to Corporations Code 14502 for appointment of humane officers. Curriculum includes child and elder abuse reporting requirements, animal law update, civil and criminal liability, rules of evidence, report writing, search and seizure, court demeanor and testifying, animal fighting, animal exhibit inspections, pet store inspections, animal hoarding, veterinary procedures, horse and livestock husbandry, exotic animal husbandry, and animal behavior and identification.  For agency sponsored personnel: please wear uniform on Wednesday March 18, 2015 for a class photo.
Required Textbook:	California Animal Laws Handbook, 2017 edition. Book can be purchased at the Marin Humane Society the first week of class. Also available from State Humane Association of California at http://www.californiastatehumane.org/catalog.htm
Reservations:	Email your request to Heather McFadden at hmcfadden@santarosa.edu or call 707.836.2908.
College Application:	Please go to www.santarosa.edu . Near the top left corner, Hover over "Admissions" then click on the "OpenCCC" icon. At this new page, click on the "New or Returning Student" option in center of screen. Then you will click on the OpenCCC button on left side of screen. If you have not created an account in the last year, you will need to create one now. Once you create an account, return to the log in page and enter your user name and password to log in. Be sure to select the semester during which you will be attending class. This is the College Application only. Registration for this specific course is not available online and will take place at the beginning of class. On question #3 of the Application, it is essential for you to select 'Maintain Certificate or License' as your Educational Goal. As advanced officers, making this selection at this step of the application will eliminate future challenges with Admissions and Records.
Payment:	Payment can be made by credit card (Visa or MasterCard) or by check made payable to: Santa Rosa Junior College . Payments can be made in advance or at the door. Agencies can be billed after the course. Please mail check to: Santa Rosa Training Center, Attn: Page Munksgard 5743 Skylane Blvd., Windsor, CA 95492.
Non-Discrimination Statement:	The Sonoma County Junior College District does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic condition, marital status, sex, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices; nor does the District discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age. This non-discrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in District programs and activities – including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, education services and athletics – and application for District employment.
